

Native American Partnership

for Health & Wellness Promotion

What We Do

NAP provides a variety of tribal community engagement and training opportunities, including:

- Opportunity to network with a wide variety of diabetes/wellness staff from our Tribal Communities, the State, and Federal Agencies
- Quarterly Meetings to discuss current issues of health and diabetes
- Timely trainings, including in-person, conference call, and webinars
- Weaving Wellness into Native American Communities Annual Conference, featuring keynote speakers, relevant breakout sessions, and facilitated group work

Get Involved

NAP offers a variety of volunteer and leadership opportunities for individuals and organizations supporting our work!

- Serve on a committee, and help plan our trainings and Annual Conference
- Share your experience and expertise and serve as a presenter, mentor, or facilitator
- Join the NAP Core Committee and provide strategic direction and leadership for our organization
- Donate meeting space, snacks or food for our Quarterly Meetings
- Sponsor our Quarterly Meetings or Annual Conference
