

Alberta Becenti, MPH

Title of presentation: Health Promotion/Disease Prevention Overview: Sharing What's Working

Bio: Alberta Becenti is the Public Health Advisor for the Health Promotion/Disease Prevention program and an acting consultant for the Health Education program for Indian Health Service Headquarters. She serves as a liaison between local communities (IHS, Tribal, urban), Area Office, and the Headquarters Health Promotion to support and enhance community capacity, establishing organizational networks, identifying resources, coordinating and conducting trainings. Provide leadership, direction, and advocacy in planning, developing, implementing, and evaluating the HP/DP program. She has work in the field of health promotion and wellness for more than 25 years and had received her Master of Public Health from the University of Oklahoma in Oklahoma City.